

MY DAILY QUERIES

Queries? You may be asking, "What in the world are queries?" Then you would be querying! Queries are just another name for questions. At the end of each week's study, you will have two pages to use privately as you talk to God, ask Him questions, and seek to grow closer to Him.

Each day will have a Bible passage for you to read and think about. It may have questions to spark your thinking or explanations about the verses. Each day will have space for you to journal your thoughts, feelings, and questions to God. If you miss a day, just start where you left off the last time. Okay. Ready, set, query!

DAILY QUERY 1

Read Genesis 3:8-11 and underline the questions God asks:

Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. So the Lord God called out to the man and said to him, "Where are you?"

And he said, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid."

Then he asked, "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

One of the reasons God asks questions even though He knows the answers is that He wants people to grow closer to Him.

- What are some questions you wish God would answer?
- Write down your questions or things you want to pray to God about.

DAILY QUERY 2

Read Genesis 1:26-27: Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness. They will rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the livestock, the whole earth, and the creatures that crawl on the earth." So God created man in his own image; he created him in the image of God; he created them male and female.

- Circle in this passage everything the Bible says about the people God created.
- God loves you! Make a list of your favorite things about yourself. Pray, thanking God for all the ways He has blessed you.

10 | THE QUEST

DAILY QUERY 3

Read Genesis 3:2-6: The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat the fruit from the trees in the garden. But about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, God said, 'You must not eat it or touch it, or you will die.' " "No! You will not die," the serpent said to the woman. "In fact, God knows that when you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." The woman saw that the tree was good for food and delightful to look at, and that it was desirable for obtaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

- Circle the words that tell what Eve's choice was in this passage. What did she choose?
- Eve disobeyed God and did what she wanted. Is there a time when you have done the same? Write about that here.
- Ask God for forgiveness. He loves you and will forgive you.

DAILY QUERY 4

Read Genesis 3:8-10: Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. So the Lord God called out to the man and said to him, "Where are you?" And he said, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid."

➤ Circle the word that tells what Adam was feeling in the garden as he hid from God.

- Why was Adam afraid?
- There are different kinds of being afraid. Adam was afraid because he knew he had disobeyed God.
- When have you been most afraid? What might have helped you be less afraid? Journal how you feel during times you are afraid. Tell God how these verses reassure you or what other kinds of help you want from Him. Ask for His guidance during frightening times.

DAILY QUERY 5

Read Psalm 139:14 and 16: I will praise you because I have been remarkably and wondrously made. Your works are wondrous, and I know this very well. Your eyes saw me when I was formless; all my days were written in your book and planned before a single one of them began.

- Think about how you are wonderfully made. Think about "how much more" God loves you than anyone else loves you.
- List several things you like about yourself.

MY DAILY QUERIES

Each day will have a Bible passage for you to read and think about. It may have questions to spark your thinking or explanations about the verses. Each day will have space for you to journal your thoughts, feelings, and questions to God. It's true that God knows our thoughts whether we write them or not, but sometimes writing them helps us get things more firmly fixed in our hearts and minds.

DAILY QUERY 1

Read Genesis 12:1-5: The Lord said to Abram: Go out from your land, your relatives, and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make you into a great nation, I will bless you, I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, I will curse anyone who treats you with contempt, and all the peoples on earth will be blessed through you. So Abram went, as the Lord had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran. He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had accumulated, and the people they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan.

- What can I learn about God from these verses?
- What can I learn about Abram from these verses?
- Name one time you know God asked you to obey, and you did.
- Pray: Thank you, God, for helping me obey You ...

DAILY QUERY 2

Read Genesis 15:5-6: He took him outside and said, "Look at the sky and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "Your offspring will be that numerous." Abram believed the Lord, and he credited it to him as righteousness.

- How is this promise different than the one in Genesis 12 from yesterday?
- How do you think Abram felt when God promised him this?
- Name one way you think God is asking you to obey Him.
- Pray: Thank you, God, for your plan for me. Help me to follow it. These are places where I struggle to obey You sometimes ...

DAILY QUERY 3

Read Genesis 15:18: On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, "I give this land to your offspring."

- God made Abram a promise. God always keeps His promises. How good are you at keeping promises?

	Dependable
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Not Dependable

- Pray, thanking God that He keeps promises.

DAILY QUERY 4

Read Genesis 21:1-3: The Lord came to Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did for Sarah what he had promised. Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time God had told him. Abraham named his son who was born to him—the one Sarah bore to him—Isaac.

- How do you think Abraham and Sarah felt when God promised them a baby?
- What is one way you know you can trust God?
- Pray: Thank you, God, for your plan for me. Help me to follow it. These are places where I struggle to obey You sometimes ...

DAILY QUERY 5

Read Genesis 21:5-6: Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and every-one who hears will laugh with me."

- Look back at each day's query. Think about what you learned and whether it changed how you think about God and growing closer to Him. Answer each of the following questions:
- What truth did I discover this week?
- What did I learn about myself and Jesus?
- Is there anything I realized I need to confess to God and change?

MY DAILY QUERIES

Queries are just another name for questions. At the end of each week's study, you will have two pages to use privately as you talk to God, ask Him questions, and seek to grow closer to Him.

DAILY QUERY 1

Read Luke 8:22-24: One day he and his disciples got into a boat, and he told them, "Let's cross over to the other side of the lake." So they set out, and as they were sailing he fell asleep. Then a fierce windstorm came down on the lake; they were being swamped and were in danger. They came and woke him up, saying, "Master, Master, we're going to die!" Then he got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves. So they ceased, and there was a calm.

- What is something you learned about the disciples in these verses?
- List some times you are afraid below.
- Pray about your fear and thank God that He is powerful to help you.

DAILY QUERY 2

Read Luke 8:25: He said to them, "Where is your faith?" They were fearful and amazed, asking one another, "Who then is this? He commands even the winds and the waves, and they obey him!"

- What can I learn about Jesus from these verses?
- List some words that describe Jesus in this story.
- Praise God that He is powerful to help you in times of danger.

DAILY QUERY 3

Read Mark 4:35-41: On that day, when evening had come, he told them, "Let's cross over to the other side of the sea." So they left the crowd and took him along since he was in the boat. And other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking over the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. He was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. So they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher! Don't you care that we're going to die?" He got up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Silence! Be still!" The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. Then he said to them, "Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?" And they were terrified and asked one another, "Who then is this? Even the wind and the sea obey him!"

- What can I learn about Jesus from these verses?
- What was Jesus doing while the disciples began to fear the storm?
- Why do you think Jesus had such peace?
- Describe one time God helped you have peace in a difficult situation?
- Pray, asking God to help you remember to turn to Him first when you need help.

DAILY QUERY 4

Read Matthew 8:23-27: As he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. Suddenly, a violent storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves—but Jesus kept sleeping. So the disciples came and woke him up, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to die!" He said to them, "Why are you afraid, you of little faith?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. The men were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the sea obey him!"

- Why would Jesus let them sail into a storm like this?
- How did fear keep the disciples from growing closer to God at first?
- Jesus does not cause bad things to happen but sometimes allows them to help test us so that we will trust Him more. What is one time you needed help and prayed to God?
- Pray, thanking God for His help in times of trouble.

DAILY QUERY 5

- Look back at each day's query. Think about what you learned and whether it changed how you think about God and growing closer to Him. Answer each of the following questions:
- What truth did I discover this week?
- What did I learn about myself and Jesus?
- Is there anything I realized I need to confess to God and change?

MY DAILY QUERIES

Each day has a Bible passage for you to read and think about. It may have questions to spark your thinking or explanations about the verses. Each day has space for you to journal your thoughts, feelings, and questions to God. It's true that God knows our thoughts whether we write them or not, but sometimes writing them helps us get things more firmly fixed in our hearts and minds. OK. Ready, set, query!

DAILY QUERY 1

Read Genesis 37:3-4. Now Israel loved Joseph more than his other sons because Joseph was a son born to him in his old age, and he made a robe of many colors for him. When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not bring themselves to speak peaceably to him.

- What do you learn about Joseph's father and his brothers?
Joseph's father, Israel (Isaac): _____
- What might you have done as a brother in the same situation?
- Write down the name of someone to pray for in your family. Pray that God will help you live to honor Him in how you treat your family.

DAILY QUERY 2

Read Genesis 37:5-7. Then Joseph had a dream. When he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. He said to them, "Listen to this dream I had: There we were, binding sheaves of grain in the field. Suddenly my sheaf stood up, and your sheaves gathered around it and bowed down to my sheaf."

- What do you learn about Joseph from these verses?
- Why do you think he told his brothers his dream?
- Do you ever have times you get jealous of your siblings or friends?
- Pray that God will help you with feelings of jealousy or times you don't get along with friends.

DAILY QUERY 3

Read Genesis 37:23-24: When Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped off Joseph's robe, the robe of many colors that he had on. Then they took him and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty, without water.

- Why did Joseph's brothers do this terrible thing to Joseph?

- How do you think Joseph felt? _____
- Do you believe God was with Joseph in the pit? _____
- Have you ever had a situation that seemed hopeless, but you saw later that God was still there taking care of you?
- Pray, thanking God for being with you even in the worst of times.

DAILY QUERY 4

Read Genesis 39:19-23. Now Joseph had been taken to Egypt. An Egyptian named Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and the captain of the guards, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him there. The Lord was with Joseph, and he became a successful man, serving in the household of his Egyptian master.

- Was God with Joseph even after he was sold as a slave? _____
- Is God watching you even when no one else you know is around?
- What questions does this verse make you think about?
- Pray, thanking God for how He cares for you even when it feels like you are all alone.

DAILY QUERY 5

Read Genesis 50:20: You planned evil against me; God planned it for good to bring about the present result—the survival of many people.

- One day Joseph would meet his brothers again and tell them, "You planned evil against me; God planned it for good." Praise God that He brings about good things out of terrible situations!
- Look back at each day's query. Think about what you learned and whether it changed how you think about God and growing closer to Him. Answer each of the following questions:
- What truth did I discover this week?
- What did I learn about myself and Jesus?

MY DAILY QUERIES

Queries are just another name for questions. It's true that God knows our thoughts whether we write them or not, but sometimes writing them helps us get things more firmly fixed in our hearts and minds. OK. Ready, set, query!

DAILY QUERY 1

Read John 21:3-6: "I'm going fishing," Simon Peter said to them.

"We're coming with you," they told him. They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When daybreak came, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not know it was Jesus.

"Friends," Jesus called to them, "you don't have any fish, do you?"

"No," they answered. "Cast the net on the right side of the boat," he told them, "and you'll find some." So they did, and they were unable to haul it in because of the large number of fish.

- Why did Jesus help them catch fish?
- Why do you think the disciples didn't realize Jesus was standing on the shore?
- What might you have done in the same situation?
- Pray, asking God to make it clear to you when He is speaking to you.

DAILY QUERY 2

Read John 21:7-11: The disciple, the one Jesus loved, said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tied his outer clothing around him (for he had taken it off) and plunged into the sea. Since they were not far from land (about a hundred yards away), the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish. When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish lying on it, and bread. "Bring some of the fish you've just caught," Jesus told them. So Simon Peter climbed up and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish — 153 of them. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn.

- What do you notice about what Jesus says to the disciples?
- How might Peter and John have felt?
- Why did Peter jump out of the boat? Would you have done the same?
- Pray, asking God to help you be bold like Peter and confident like John.

DAILY QUERY 3

Read John 21:12-14: "Come and have breakfast," Jesus told them. None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came, took the bread, and gave it to them. He did the same with the fish. This was now the third time Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

- What do you learn about the disciples from this passage?
- Why do you think that Jesus appeared to the disciples multiple times?
- Do you think that Jesus wants people to know Him so much that He gives them many chances to get to know Him?
- Pray, thanking God for seeking after you.

DAILY QUERY 4

Read John 21:15-17: When they had eaten breakfast, Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?"

"Yes, Lord," he said to him, "you know that I love you."

"Feed my lambs," he told him. A second time he asked him, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

"Yes, Lord," he said to him, "you know that I love you."

"Shepherd my sheep," he told him. He asked him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was grieved that he asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you."

"Feed my sheep," Jesus said.

- What do you learn about Jesus and Peter from these verses?
- Why do you think Jesus asked Peter the same question three times?
- How was Peter to show his love for Jesus?
- What might you do if Jesus asked you to serve Him?
- Pray, asking God to show you who He wants you to serve.

DAILY QUERY 5

Read John 21:18-19: "Truly I tell you, when you were younger, you would tie your belt and walk wherever you wanted. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will tie you and carry you where you don't want to go." He said this to indicate by what kind of death Peter would glorify God. After saying this, he told him, "Follow me."

Look back at each day's query. Answer each of the following questions:

- What truth did I discover this week?
- What did I learn about myself and Jesus?
- Is there anything I realized I need to confess to God and change?

MY DAILY QUERIES

Although these are the last pages in your book, you can continue your queries with God. Grab a notebook, a pen or pencil, and your Bible. Keep them where you will be reminded to use them each day. Choose a book of the Bible, such as Mark, and read a few verses in that book each day. Record what you learn, how you feel, what God is teaching you, and anything you want to include.

DAILY QUERY 1

Read Psalm 119:97-100 How I love your instruction! It is my meditation all day long. Your commands make me wiser than my enemies, for they are always with me. I have more insight than all my teachers because your decrees are my meditation. I understand more than the elders because I obey your precepts.

- What do you learn about God's Word?
- How do these Bible verses make you feel?
- In what ways might you be wise and understanding if you study and obey God's Word?
- Pray, asking God to show you the way He wants you to live.

DAILY QUERY 2

Read Psalm 119:111-112: I have your decrees as a heritage forever; indeed, they are the joy of my heart. I am resolved to obey your statutes to the very end.

- How long will God's Word lead you?
- What about the Bible makes you feel joy?
- What does God want you to learn from these verses?
- Pray, asking God to help you study the Bible regularly.

DAILY QUERY 3

Read Psalm 119:129-132: Your decrees are wondrous; therefore I obey them. The revelation of your words brings light and gives understanding to the inexperienced. I open my mouth and pant because I long for your commands. Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is your practice toward those who love your name.

- What are two of God's commands, decrees, or statutes you find wonderful?
- Why might King David have thought God's laws are wonderful?
- What does God want you to learn from these verses?
- Pray, thanking God for teaching you through the Bible.

DAILY QUERY 4

Read Psalm 119:133-136: Make my steps steady through your promise; don't let any sin dominate me. Redeem me from human oppression, and I will keep your precepts. Make your face shine on your servant, and teach me your statutes. My eyes pour out streams of tears because people do not follow your instruction.

- How might sin rule a person's life?
- How can the Bible help a person stay away from sin ruling his life?
- What examples can you recall of people following God's instructions and help them stop making bad choices?
- Pray, asking God for forgiveness of your sins.

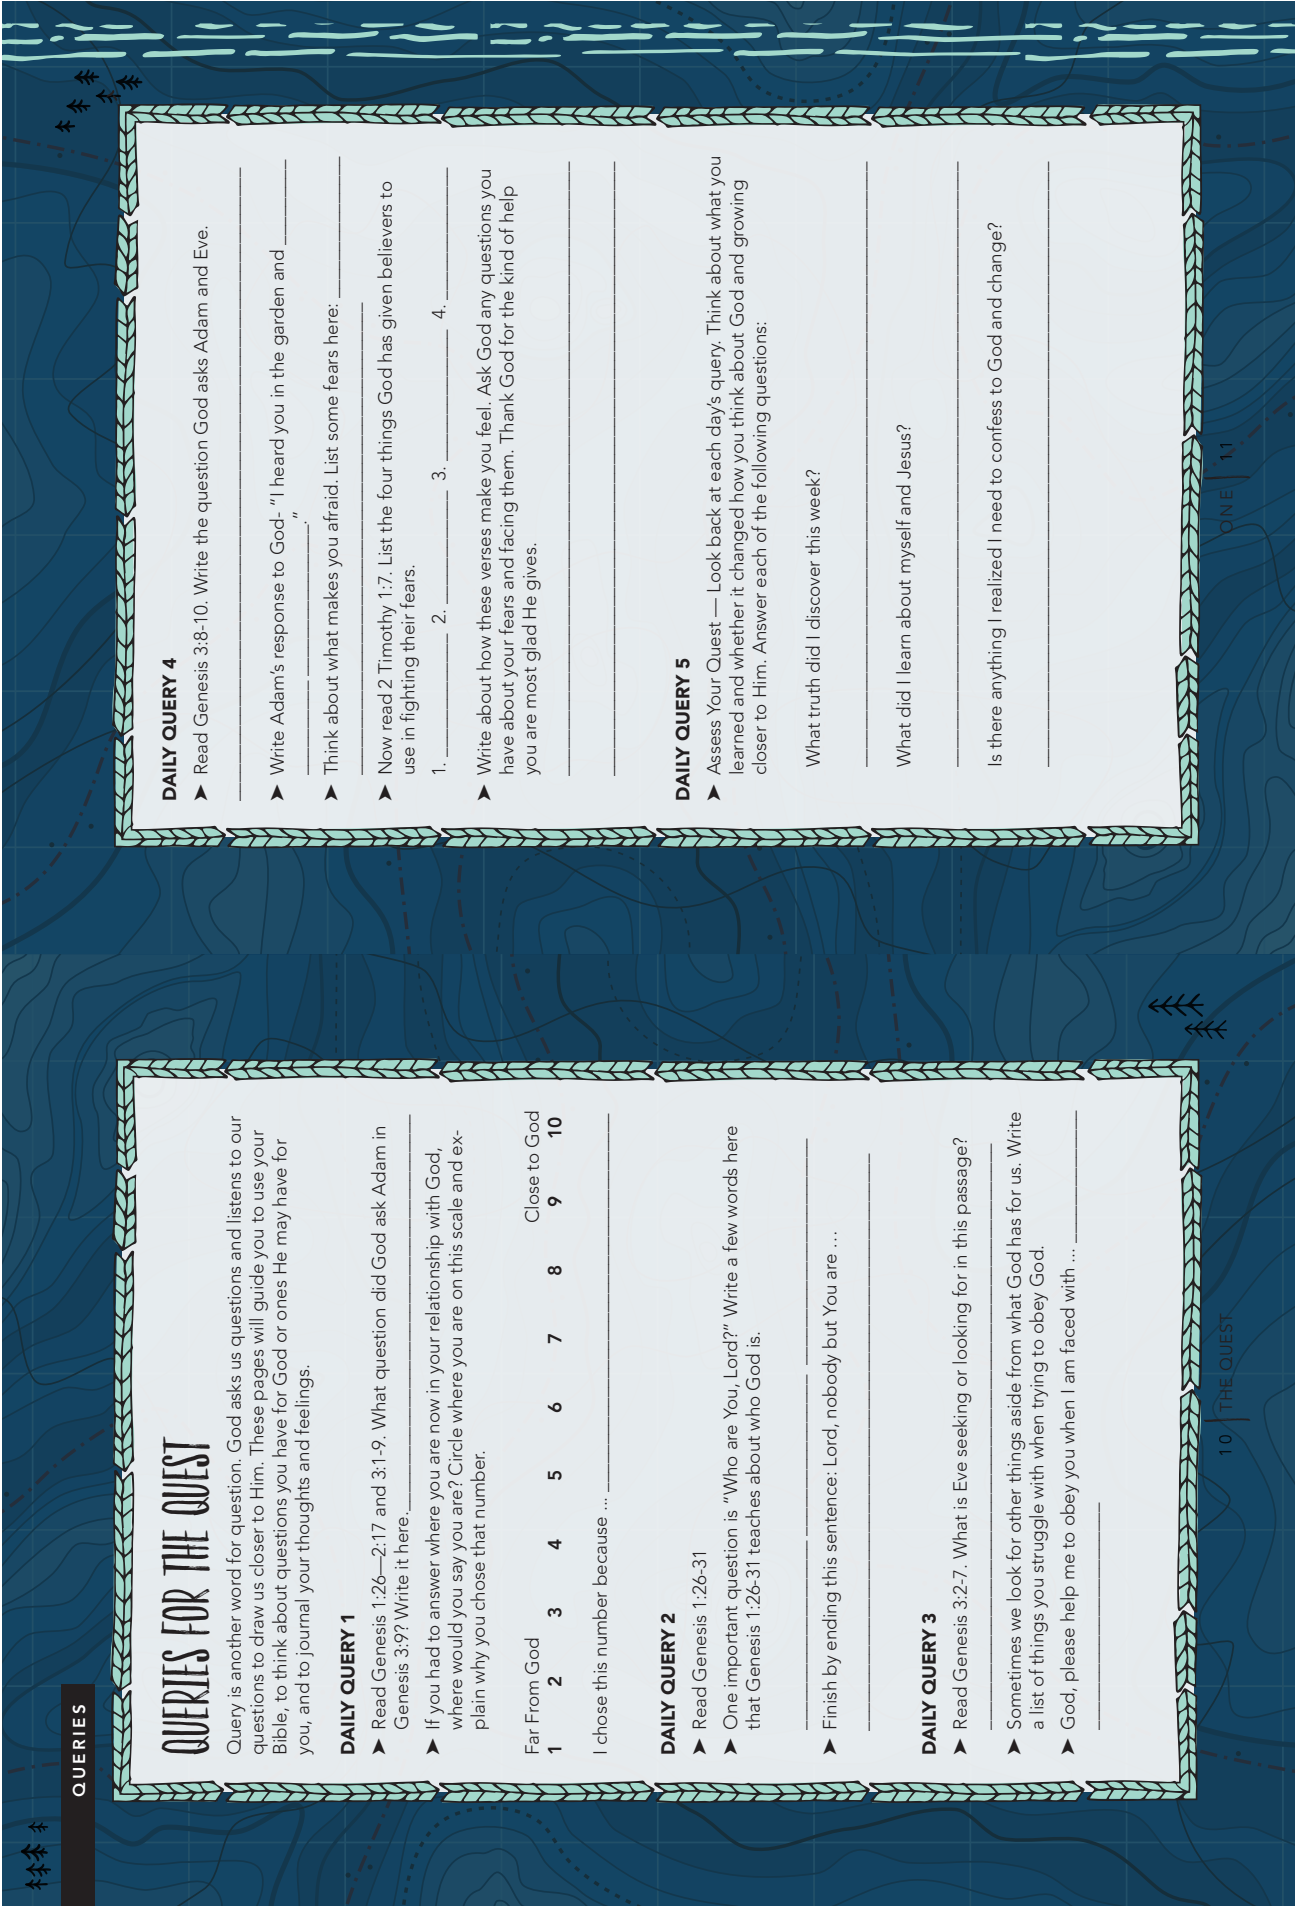

DAILY QUERY 5

Read Psalm 119:171-173: My lips pour out praise, for you teach me your statutes. My tongue sings about your promise, for all your commands are righteous. May your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen your precepts.

- What do you want to praise God for doing or being?
- What promises has God made? Is He keeping those promises?
- Write down all the words in these verses that mean God's Word. How do you feel about their being so many?

Look back at each day's query. Answer each of the following questions:

- What truth did I discover this week?
- What did I learn about myself and Jesus?
- Is there anything I realized I need to confess to God and change?

QUERIES FOR THE QUEST

- What might you do if Jesus asked you to serve Him? _____

Pray, asking God to show you who He wants you to serve.

DAILY QUERY 5

Read John 21:18-22.

Assess Your Quest

Look back at each day's query. Think about what you learned and whether it changed how you think about God and growing closer to Him. Answer each of the following questions:

- What truth did I discover this week?
- What did I learn about myself and Jesus?
- Is there anything I realized I need to confess to God and change?

QUERIES FOR THE QUEST

Although these are the last pages in your book, you can continue your queries with God. Grab a notebook, a pen or pencil, and your Bible. Keep them where you are reminded to use them each day. Choose a book of the Bible, such as Mark, and read a few verses in that book each day. Record what you learn, how you feel, what God is teaching you, and anything else you want to include.

DAILY QUERY 1

Read Psalm 119:97-100.

- What do you learn about God's Word?
- How do these Bible verses make you feel? _____
- In what ways might you be wise and understanding if you study and obey God's Word? _____

Pray, asking God to show you the way He wants you to live.

DAILY QUERY 2

Read Psalm 119:111-112.

- How long will God's Word lead you? _____
- What about the Bible makes you feel joy? _____
- What does God want you to learn from these verses? _____

Pray, asking God to help you study the Bible regularly.

DAILY QUERY 3

Read Psalm 119:129-132.

- What are two of God's commands, decrees, or statutes you find wonderful?
- Why might King David have thought God's laws are wonderful?
- What does God want you to learn from these verses?

Pray, thanking God for teaching you through the Bible.

DAILY QUERY 4

Read Psalm 119:133-136.

- How might sin rule a person's life?
- How can the Bible help a person stay away from sin ruling his life?
- What examples can you recall of people following God's instructions and help them stop making bad choices?

Pray, asking God for forgiveness of your sins.

DAILY QUERY 5

Read Psalm 119:171-173.

- What do you want to praise God for doing or being?
- What promises has God made? Is He keeping those promises?
- Write down all the words in these verses that mean God's Word. How do you feel about their being so many?
