Six Things We Can

STUDY 2:

Walking in Confidence

WHERE'S YOUR TRUST?

Your trust is a valuable commodity. You exercise trust quite frequently, but the things and people you trust don't always deliver.

- ▶ You trust your car to get you home, but unforeseen engine trouble leaves you on the side of the road.
- ▶ You trust the medication prescribed by your doctor, but your body doesn't respond like you hoped.
- ▶ You trust the one you voted for, but despite her best efforts, she can't always deliver on her promises.

The one place trust always pays off is when you trust the promises of God. We are hopeless sinners without God, yet He offers forgiveness, hope, and a new life. God is faithful, and He will deliver on what He says. All you need to do is take Him at His word; trust Him. Trust that Jesus' death removed your sin. Trust that His resurrection from the dead ensures a new life for you. Trust that He enters your life in a relationship that will never end.

If you would like a new life in Christ, trust Him. Repent of your sins and put your faith in Him. Admit to God you are a sinner and ask Him to forgive you. Turn from the sin that has kept you from God and accept Jesus' gift of forgiveness. Confess your faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Express your repentance and faith by praying something like this:

“Dear God, I know I am a sinner. I believe Jesus died on the cross to forgive me of my sins. I'm sorry for all the wrong I've done and ask You to forgive me. I now accept Your gift of eternal life. Thank You for Your love, forgiveness, and a new life in Jesus Christ. From this day forward, I choose to follow You. In Jesus' name, Amen.”

Share your decision to follow Jesus with a pastor or those in your Bible study group. Get involved in a church that will help you grow in your faith. Be baptized as an expression of your faith.

WELCOME

Did you know that most guests visit a Bible study group because a group member invited them? Never underestimate the power of an invitation—it continues to be the most influential thing you can do to get new people into your Bible study group. I encourage you to go out on a limb to invite family, friends, neighbors, and acquaintances to your group; and pray that God uses these studies to speak directly to them!

Our Bible Studies for Life team has crafted two great studies for you and your guests this fall. The first one is by a returning author and friend, Blake Gideon. His first study on evangelism received high praises a few years ago, so we invited him to write again. His new study, No Doubt: Six Things We Can Know for Sure, offers reminders from the book of 1 John that we can be sure of God's love and the ways He works in our lives. I often need those reminders! How about you?

The second study, by Travis Whittaker, is equally great. Travis has created a study on Abraham and how this man walked by faith—something we must do today more than ever. The last year has been tough on churches and groups everywhere, and we've had to walk by faith during the COVID-19 pandemic. Travis's study will help us see how we should trust God like Abraham did—moment by moment.

Thanks for allowing our team to be a part of your Bible study experience. We hope God speaks to you in new and fresh ways.

THE PATHWAY OF DISCIPLESHIP

Growing in Christ is a journey—a lifelong journey—but what does that look like? Lifeway’s research reveals eight markers consistently present in the lives of believers who are growing spiritually. Each year, Bible Studies for Life engages all eight of these areas. Following this intentional plan for discipleship ensures progress on the pathway to becoming more like Christ.

Visit www.BibleStudiesforLife.com for a fuller picture of this discipleship plan through 2022.

WALKING IN CONFIDENCE

Exercise Faith. Throughout his life, Abraham continually had to trust God. As we learn from his example, we discover every act of trust only deepens our faith. As our faith deepens, our confidence in the One we trust deepens.

Introduction

NO DOUBT: SIX THINGS WE CAN KNOW FOR SURE

“Nothing is certain but death and taxes.” No one knows for sure who actually said this first, but I know one thing: it’s not true!

For example, most of us could quickly call out the names of people we are sure who love us. Mathematicians and accountants can be certain of the sum of a group of numbers. Of course, we also have a lot of things we can’t know for sure: Will our team win this year? What will the economy do? Will Lucy ever let Charlie Brown kick the football?

A lot of people struggle with certainty in their spiritual lives. Am I really saved? Will I go to heaven when I die? Those are questions we can answer with confidence. The apostle John’s short letter, 1 John, was written to answer those very questions. “These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life” (1 John 5:13). No doubt about it: John wanted us to have no doubt.

Join me as we dive into this wonderful little letter. We will discover six ways John assured us we can have assurance. We can live with no doubt.

DR. BLAKE GIDEON

Blake serves as senior pastor for First Baptist Church in Edmond, Oklahoma. He has served as the president of the Oklahoma Baptist Convention. Blake is passionate about the gospel and finds his greatest joy in seeing the lost become fully devoted followers of Christ. Blake is married to his best friend, Kelly, and they have four children.

SESSION 1

Sure of Forgiveness

QUESTION 1:

What are some sure things you can count on in life?

THE POINT

We are forgiven when we confess our sin and walk with Christ.

THE PASSAGE

1 John 1:5–2:2

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

Can we be sure of anything? Some philosophers will tell you we can't. After COVID-19 arrived last year and shook up the everyday routine of our lives, nothing seemed certain.

We can have assurance, though. God desires for every believer to have assurance of salvation. Sadly, many Christians struggle daily with doubt as it pertains to their eternal destiny. Some even believe it's impossible to know with certainty that a person is eternally saved. At other times, believers who are not sure of their salvation find themselves plunged into the depths of doubt and despair, uncertain of whether or not God has truly forgiven them. Others allow their own self-condemnation to smother the assurance God desires for them to have.

But we can be assured of assurance! The apostle John stated this clearly in 1 John 5:13: "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life." We have God's assurance of eternal life even as we have the assurance of our forgiveness.

1 John 1:5-7

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

The character of God is the foundation for our forgiveness. When John wrote, “God is light,” he described the very nature of God. Since He is light, “in him is no darkness at all.” To describe God as light refers not only to His holiness but also to His moral goodness. In His perfect righteousness and goodness, God determines the terms for our forgiveness. God’s terms are clear: we are forgiven when we confess our sins and commit our lives to walk with Christ.

We are forgiven when we turn from darkness to light. John underscored this by looking at this truth from two sides.

1. Darkness. “If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.” The idea of walking refers to a person’s way of life. If anyone lives a life of continual, unrepentant sin and claims to be forgiven or to have fellowship with God, he is tragically mistaken. The way he lives—continually choosing to sin—points to the reality that he is not in fellowship with God.

The gospel has the power to change a person’s life. “It is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth” (Rom. 1:16). When we embrace the gospel, His power leads to transformation. “If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Cor. 5:17). The gospel’s powerful work in our lives is what moves us from darkness (sin) to light (salvation): “Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins” (Col. 1:13-14). The ones whose lives have been transformed by the power of the gospel are transferred to the kingdom of the Son and their sins are forgiven.

C.H. Spurgeon observed, “This change is radical; it gives us new natures, makes us love what we hated and hate what we loved, sets us in a new road; makes our habits different, makes our thoughts different, makes us different in private, and different in public.”¹ Such radical change means walking in darkness is contrary to God’s terms for fellowship.

2. Light. “But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.” When we turn from darkness and walk with Christ, we are assured of forgiveness. To walk in the light is to live a life consistent with the will of God. Of course, this does not mean we are perfect, but that the trajectory and the purpose of our lives has become the pursuit of God. We are assured of forgiveness when fellowship is the longing of our heart.

Tony Evans wrote: “Every week, people have the habit of taking clothes to the cleaners that have been soiled. The job of the cleaners is to freshen them up and get them smelling good again.” As Tony Evans said, “Jesus has a cleaning service. He picks up dirty people who have allowed, for one reason or another, their lives to take a turn down the wrong path. And at his cleaning service, Jesus knows just what to do to wash you and make you clean again.”² Jesus is the one who “cleanseth us from all sin.” This is the beautiful message of the gospel: Jesus gave His life to save dirty sinners like you and me. If your life pattern is turning from darkness and pursuing holiness, then don’t doubt God’s forgiveness toward you. We are forgiven when we confess our sins and walk with Christ.

QUESTION 2:

How should we understand the images of light and darkness in these verses?

1 John 1:8-10

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

KEY WORD: Confess (1:9)—To confess means “to say the same thing,” “to agree.” In this verse, to confess specifically means to agree with God about our sin.

In verses 5-7, John gave us a darkness/light contrast to underscore that we are forgiven when we turn from darkness to light. In verses 8-10, the apostle used a similar negative/positive pattern:

1. Deception. “If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.” Failure to admit sin is a mistake of the highest order. Why would a person fail to recognize and confess sin?
 - Self-righteousness. A self-righteous attitude says, “I’m not that bad; as a matter of fact, I’m pretty good compared to some people. Therefore, I have nothing to confess.” When sharing Christ with a young man, I asked him if he had ever sinned. He stated without hesitation, “No!” I started with the Ten Commandments and asked him if he had ever lied, stolen, or lusted. His answer reflected the self-righteousness of our day. He said, “Of course I’ve done those things, but I thought you were talking about murder and adultery. You know, stuff like that.” Before our conversation was over, he saw how he had broken the entirety of the law of God; sadly however, his pride still would not allow him to confess his sin to God.

- Self-deception. Air Florida Flight 90 crashed into the Potomac River on January 13, 1982, killing 78 people. The conditions were snowy and icy. Even though they knew better, the pilots convinced themselves that further de-icing of the plane was unnecessary.³ They were tragically wrong. We can convince ourselves that our sins are no big deal, but we’d be woefully wrong. People deceive themselves when they try to justify and make excuses for their sins. One day the deception of the self-deceived will come tragically upon their own heads. Worst of all, to deny one’s sin is to call God a liar.

QUESTION 3:

What have you found challenging about accepting forgiveness?

2. Confession. The opposite of deception is confession. “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” Humble confession leads to forgiveness. We are forgiven when we look at our sin in light of Christ’s righteousness and willingly confess our sin for what it is: wickedness against God Himself. We see the contrast between self-righteousness and humble confession in Jesus’ parable of the Pharisee and tax collector:

“Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted” (Luke 18:10-14).

You have no reason to doubt forgiveness when you confess your sin and walk with Christ. The trustworthy character of God secures the promise of forgiveness. I’m sure you have heard it said that a promise is only as good as the person giving it. Consider then, who is making this promise? God is “faithful and just,” and His promises are true.

QUESTION 4:

How has God’s forgiveness impacted your life?

1 John 2:1-2

1 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

KEY WORDS: Advocate (2:1)—An advocate is a person who “helps,” who “provides aid.” Jesus is a legal counsel to defend Christians, particularly from His position in heaven.

Propitiation (2:2)—The word means that God has provided His grace through Jesus’ sacrificial death on the cross so that people can be accepted by God.

John assured his readers, “If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.” The word for advocate literally means “one who is called to come alongside another.” It’s the counselor for one’s defense in a court of law, a person who intercedes for someone else. I can think of nothing more encouraging than to know Jesus is the one who stands up on our behalf. Imagine for a moment that you’re being tried before a judge. Your lawyer stands and pleads your case to the judge, and then amazingly, you discover your defense attorney is also the judge! This scenario portrays the reality of our relationship in Christ. You have no doubt of forgiveness when Christ is your Advocate.

The foundation of Christ’s advocacy is the blood He shed for our atonement. The reason for atoning is to appease an offended party. Jesus, through His death on the cross, satisfied the righteous indignation of God. However, we are not to perceive God as some pagan deity who is reluctantly appeased because of blood being shed. On the contrary, God the Father provided the sacrifice Himself; thus, He satisfied His wrath by giving His only Son to die in our place. Furthermore, Christ willingly gave His life as our substitute.

Patients often need blood transfusions after severe accidents or during surgery. However, the patients must be given a blood type that is compatible with their own. Mismatched blood can cause life-threatening complications. But researchers in Japan have developed artificial blood that possibly can be transfused into any patient regardless of blood type without that complication. Professor Manabu Kinoshita said, “It is difficult to stock a sufficient amount of blood for transfusions in such regions as remote islands. ... The artificial blood will be able to save the lives of people who otherwise could not be saved.”⁴

Better than any artificial blood, the blood of Jesus saves everyone who receives it. Those who come to Christ face no compatibility issues, and they will find no scarcity of supply. When you find yourself in doubt, depend on Jesus as your Advocate and your atoning sacrifice, the One who shed His own blood for you.

Turning from darkness, confessing sin, and having Jesus as our Advocate and the one who shed His blood to atone for our sins leaves no room for doubt. Therefore, we can be certain of forgiveness because we confess sin and walk with Christ.

QUESTION 5:

How does this passage help you be sure of forgiveness?

ENGAGE

Imagine yourself standing before a judge to answer for a serious crime. List five characteristics you would want in an attorney or advocate:

Compare these qualities to Jesus Christ who is our advocate before the throne of God:

Describe how you felt when you received Christ as Savior and were forgiven of your sins:

Write a brief prayer to God, thanking Him for His forgiveness through Christ:

LIVE IT OUT

We are forgiven when we confess our sin and walk with Christ. Choose one of the following applications:

- ▶ Examine. Consider the principles taught today. They will either encourage you as a believer or accuse you as a nonbeliever.
- ▶ Meditate. Every day this week pray according to Psalm 139:23-24, “Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.”
- ▶ Share. Share your personal story of forgiveness with someone this week. “Be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear” (1 Peter 3:14b-15).
